NEW: PROTOCOL CULTURE ADDICT #86

Anime News Network's Protoculture Addicts is the only independent and the longest running anime & manga magazine in North America (it has been around for over eighteen years, so its staff knows anime). It is dedicated to keeping fans informed about what is going on in the anime industry (both in Japan and North America) and to helping them choose the best titles to buy. Each issue introduces several anime (with overviews, character & mechanical files, episode guides, etc.), anime-related products (books, DVDs, manga, models kits, soundtrack CDs, toys, etc.) or events (festivals, conventions, etc.) and elements of Japanese culture (live-action movies, books, music, etc.). It covers all styles and genres of anime and caters to the interests of both beginners & otakus. It offers more useful information than any other anime magazine in a compact and affordable format! Protoculture Addicts is definitely the best guide to anime culture. 80 pages (16 in color!), $4.95.

This issue of Anime News Network's Protoculture Addicts introduces eleven anime series: three "Spotlights" on Eureka Seven, Robotech: The Shadow Chronicles and Samurai Champloo as well as eight "Anime Stories" on Glass Mask, Mahoraba, Mahou Sensei Negima!, Mind Game, Phantom Master, Stand Alone Complex 2nd Gig, Starship Operators and Victorian Romance Emma !! It also offers several thematic articles on anime fashion, co-productions, Japanese Dolls, Sports in anime, as well as an interview with Masami Tsuda, the usual J-pop database, convention & festival reports (Animazement, A-Kon, Fantasia), reviews of anime & manga-related products (47 DVDs, 4 CDs, 13 manga, 4 books, 6 toys, 3 live-action movies) and the latest anime & manga news directly from Anime News Network newsdesk! With 80 pages, it's one of the best and biggest issues of the magazine!
